

Broughton Castle

— OCF COMES OF AGE —

Programme

SATURDAY 18TH JUNE 2016

THE SPEAKERS

Tim Stevenson OBE

Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire

Tim Stevenson has been President of Oxfordshire Community Foundation since 2008, when he was appointed Lord Lieutenant. He has an MA in Jurisprudence from Worcester College Oxford, was called to the Bar in 1971 and is a member of the Inner Temple. He has worked in senior positions at Castrol International, Burmah Castrol, Travis Perkins, Morgan Crucible and Johnson Matthey. His interests include hill walking, modern art, music and reading.

John Taylor

Chair of Oxfordshire Community Foundation

John was CEO of international plastics and petrochemical company Borealis AG until his retirement in 2007. During this time he successfully led a major company transformation, including establishing it as a leader in safety performance. This involved championing fundamental changes to company and asset strategy, and driving operational excellence across the business. Today he is Vice Chairman of The Friends of Dorchester Abbey, a trustee of Response Organisation, and an Oxfordshire Charity Mentor.

Richard Kennell

Co-Founder, South Oxfordshire Food and Education Alliance

With a background in education, Richard Kennell founded SOFEA in 2014 to work with young people to build their employability, whilst providing nutritious food for those in need. SOFEA gives out surplus food to people in need across the Thames Valley from a distribution centre operated by disadvantaged young people aged between 14 and 24, who gain qualifications, work experience and support to move on to further study or employment.

Jayne Woodley

Chief Executive of Oxfordshire Community Foundation

After a corporate lifetime in business development and marketing, Jayne joined Oxfordshire Community Foundation in 2010. Her decision to swap Barclays Capital for social capital was motivated by a growing personal desire for greater social justice, and an awareness of the evolving role of philanthropy. Jayne is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, and aspires to changing the financial landscape of Oxfordshire for good, achieving the best possible social return on all charitable funding.

Sir Dominic Cadbury

Trustee at Heart of England Community Foundation

Sir Dominic Cadbury was Chief Executive and then Chairman of Cadbury Schweppes plc between 1983 and 2000. He was Chairman of the Wellcome Trust between 2000 and 2006. He has been Chairman of The Economist Group and served on the Boards of Guinness plc, EMI plc and Misy's plc. He was a member of the President's Committee of the CBI and Chairman of the Food & Drinks Federation. Sir Dominic was Chancellor of the University of Birmingham for 11 years up to December 2013. He was knighted in the Queen's Birthday Honours List in 1997.

A.C. Grayling

Philosopher and Master of the New College of the Humanities

A. C. Grayling is the author of over 30 books of philosophy, biography, history of ideas, and essays. He is a columnist for Prospect magazine, and has contributed to many leading newspapers in the UK, US and Australia, and to BBC Radios 4, 3, 2 and the World Service, for which he did the annual 'Exchanges at the Frontier' series. He has twice been a judge on the Booker Prize and chaired the judging panel in 2015. He is a Vice President of the British Humanist Association, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature.

ABOUT OXFORDSHIRE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Oxfordshire Community Foundation (OCF) is an independent charity that connects people who care with causes that matter. We inspire local philanthropy, and nurture community-based solutions to key social problems across Oxfordshire.

We are one of 48 community foundations in the UK, and over 1,800 similar foundations around the world. Community foundations collaborate with private philanthropists, family trusts, businesses and the public sector to provide a permanent, flexible and growing source of local charitable funding.

OCF has built an endowment fund of nearly £5 million, and awarded more than £5 million in grants to local community groups working to make Oxfordshire a better place. We aim to increase our endowment fund to at least £10 million by 2020.

We believe in lasting, strategic and proactive solutions to complex social problems. To achieve these, we are committed to developing our knowledge and understanding of Oxfordshire's needs and all available resources.

We work in partnership with others so that we can have a greater impact.
