

Named funds active in 2015

A named fund is a ring-fenced charitable fund held by us on behalf of a fund owner. Named funds are a great way for families and businesses to get directly involved in community philanthropy, without the cost and administration of setting up their own charitable trust.

Adult Literacy Fund		To help adults of all ages cope within the modern world and to support any projects that meet this purpose eg rehabilitation, computer skills for the elderly, cooking with embedded numeracy (for young single mothers).
Charity Mentors www.charitymentors.co.uk		To offer pro bono short-term mentoring for charities with strategic challenges, by mentors who are senior leaders, credible in their own right, and who have a range of experience and strategic expertise in the commercial and voluntary sectors. The mentors intend to help charity leaders actively shape their organisation's future in a practical and sustainable way.
Coventry Building Society Community Fund www.coventrybuildingsociety.co.uk		To allow Coventry Building Society to donate to local charities and community groups, which it has done since 1998. It is entirely funded by Coventry Building Society, and administered by several local community foundations in the different counties in which the business operates.
David and Claudia Harding Foundation		To support Oxfordshire Community Foundation as a patron fund, contributing towards OCF's general philanthropy work and small grant-making.
Eynsham Museum Fund		To support a long-term project with the aim of raising sufficient monies to establish a museum in the village to display the history of this special place, nurture the pride of the community for its roots and provide an inspiration for future generations.
